

National DERS and SMART pump conference

Monday, April 29th 2024

BCEC Birmingham

National Association of Medical Device
Educators and Trainers

Final DRAFT; Subject to change

www.namdet.org

Eventbrite QR meeting code

08:45 to 09:15

Registration and refreshments on arrival

09:15 to 09:30

Welcome Message

Paul Lee, Consultant Clinical Scientist, Swansea Bay University Health Board, Chair NAMDET www.namdet.org

09:30 to 09:55

National perspective on DERS and SMART pumps.

Clare Roques, Senior Clinical Advisor, Injectable Medicines Guide (MEDUSA)

09:55 to 10:20

Socio-economic and human factors for DERS and SMART Pumps. Adam Sutherland, Associate Professor, Bradford University

10:20 to 11:00

Refreshments and Exhibition

11:00 to 11:30

NIVAS Update on new Guidelines and IV Practice.

Andrew Barton, Chair NIVAS www.nivas.org.uk

11:30 to 12:00

A UK wide perspective on DERS & SMART pumps.

Greg Barton, Principal Clinical Pharmacist. Mersey and West Lancs Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

12:00 to 12:30

The vision of an All Wales Drug Library for DERS.

Dianne Burnett, National Lead for Medicines Advice. Cardiff and Vale University Health Board

12:30 to 02:30

Lunch, then Infusion device symposiums and exhibitions
A chance to see the DERS and SMART pumps in action

02:30 to 02:50

Connectivity of Infusion pumps, A real life example of when it works for patient safety. Titilayo Alagbe, Head of Pharmacy UK at Genesis Care

02:50 to 03:10

Implementing DERS and SMART pumps with WiFi in a large NHS Teaching hospital. Tracie Walkden-Williams, Medical Device Specialist Nurse & Lynsey Bellamy, Betsi Cadwaladr UHB

03:10 to 03:30

DERS and SMART pumps; a vision for the future.

Sarah El-Sheikha/David Faluyi, Clinical Leads for Digital Clinical Safety NHS England

03:30 to 03:45

Summary and take home message

To book an exhibition space, email:

jordan.lee@namdet.org

To book tickets by invoice or direct order, email:

john.byrne@namdet.org